

Introduction: Are you curious about “Facing the Horizon: Peeking Beyond the Obvious”, today’s sermon topic?

Text: Psalm 90:1-2, 10-12

A. Existential FACTS

1. Undeniable fact: the universe exists is fact, not fiction.
2. God exists: is data, not delusion (Gen. 1:1; Rom. 1:20).
3. Man exists: by God’s choice, not by random evolution (Gen. 1:26-27).
4. Man is troubled: by his own choices (Gen. 3:17, 19; Job 5:7; Psalm 90:10).
5. Man needs God’s wisdom: to manage his short time on earth (Psalm 90:12).

B. Exuberant FAITH (Heb. 11:6)

1. Faith that God rewards those who seek Him.
2. Faith that God is find-able.
3. Faith that looks to Jesus (Heb. 12:2).

C. Ensured FUTURE

1. Our dual citizenship (Phil. 3:20).
2. Our glorified body (Phil: 3:21)
3. Our blessed hope (Titus 2:11-15).

Conclusion:

1. 2 Timothy 4:6-8
2. Amazing Grace (1st Stanza)

1. In astronomy, horizon is the boundary between earth and sky.

2. In psychology, horizon refers to the scope of a person’s interest.

3. Today’s sermon about FACTS, FAITH, FUTURE are all within our scope of interest as Bible-based believers.

4. Select from the points under FACTS, FAITH, and FUTURE what appeal most to your interest that relate to your needs.
