

Introduction: The timely message for everyone—today’s sermon—begs two questions.

1. What is a timely message?

- a. A message that relates to questions on people’s mind.
- b. A message that fits the occasion.
- c. A message that reassures people who worry.

2. What is the timely message for everyone?

- a. Sermon Key Point: The unchanging Christ is the timely message for everyone, whatever their life circumstances.
- b. Sermon text: Hebrews 13:8; 1:1-3.

A. Relevant Question About Christ

Why is Christ the ever-timely message for everyone whatever the circumstances?

- 1. He is God’s final message to us.
- 2. He is the radiance of God’s glory.
- 3. He is the sustainer of all things.
- 4. He is the provider of purification for sin.
- 5. He is the co-ruler with the Father on His throne.

B. Relevant Questions About You

- 1. What time or season is it in your life that brings you stressful challenges?
  - a. Spring
  - b. Summer
  - c. Fall
  - d. Winter

2. How can the timeless Christ be the timely message for the changing seasons of your life—to teach, guide, strengthen, and make you a winner throughout your life?

This question will take us back to our text about Christ.

- a. Trust Christ as God’s final message to you.
- b. Trust Him to transform you into His likeness for God’s glory to shine through you.
- c. Trust Him to sustain you through the struggles in the changing seasons of your life.
- d. Trust Him to continue purifying your life from sinful defilement
- e. Surrender your heart totally to Him as the Ruler of your life.

C. Practical Application (Ecclesiastes 12:1, 6, 13-14)
