

REDISCOVERING THE ANCIENT PATHS

Jeremiah 6:16
September 13, 2020
Pastor Alan Dionson

INTRO

1. Reviewing last Sunday
2. Remnant community

A. REEVALUATING OUR CURRENT PATHS

1. Stop
2. Look around (Rev. 2:7)
3. Ask
4. Walk

B. REDISCOVERING THE ANCIENT PATHS

1. It is eternal (Gen. 21:33; Ps. 41:13; Ps. 90:2; Is. 40:6-8; Mk. 13:31; Jn. 1:1)
2. It is particular (Pr. 5:21; Ps. 23:3-4; Pr. 3:6)
3. It is beneficial (Pr. 2:6-10; Ps. 119:35)
4. It is integral

CONCLUSION

Table Talk Questions

1. Have you ever experienced losing your direction? Describe your experience.
2. Read Jeremiah 6:16 and describe the language used to describe someone who is lost. How has the church in America lost its way?
3. Based on the message last Sunday, how is the word ancient used in the Bible in terms of time and essence?
4. Why did God use the plural form of ancient paths instead of the singular form of ancient path? What is the interpretation and implication of this truth?
5. The ancient paths have been described as good and beneficial. How has God's word resulted with these outcomes? Share specific examples in your life to encourage the group.
6. Check with your Life Group members and encourage everyone to sign up for the Bible Engagement Project.
7. Close the meeting with a prayer of guidance as the church reemphasizes the importance of God's word through the Bible Engagement Project.